

Message from Eric Marsh & Family, Owner of the George Hotel

March 24th 2020

Our guests and colleagues' wellbeing are really important to us at The George Hotel, and given the latest guidelines from Government we have made the difficult decision to close our hotel until we are authorised to reopen.

Our hotel will remain open for workers from the NHS or those companies supporting them, and other essential and emergency workers. For further information please do contact the hotel.

We look forward to welcoming our wonderful guests back to the hotel, and whilst we wait for this date we will train and develop the team on site, refresh some parts of the building and generally keep the hotel looking tip top. It is important to us that we retain the family values and culture of the George Hotel so all staff members are being retained; no-one is being laid off.

All of our guests and customers will be offered the opportunity to rebook to any date within the next 12 months, or a full refund can be provided if preferred.

We will keep in touch via our social channels, email and blog posts, so keep an eye out for some upcoming recipes, inspiration and competitions!

Please all stay safe and we look forward to welcoming you to The George Hotel in the not too distant future.

Yours sincerely

Mr Eric Marsh
